Accepting the Sister Gail Rieth Volunteer Service Award from Richard Zazycki (left), Executive Director of Circles of Mercy, is Sister Katherine Arseneau, CSJ (right), Parish Life Director at St. Michael the Archangel Parish in Troy, which was given to honor the parishioners who for the past 10 years have provided volunteer and financial support to Circles of Mercy.

Circles of Mercy and the Sisters of Mercy Northeast Community recently presented their annual Sister Gail Rieth Volunteer Service Award to: St. Michael the Archangel Parish in Troy for their volunteer work and support to Circles of Mercy.

For the past 10 years the parish has faithfully provided volunteers and financially supported the programs and services at Circles of Mercy. We are happy to recognize this dedicated group of parishioners with our volunteer award and offer our sincere thanks and congratulations.

The volunteer award was presented during "A Taste of Mercy" annual fund raising gala recently held to benefit Circles of Mercy. Circles is an out-reach center for those in need, sponsored by the Sisters of Mercy Northeast Community. It was established in 1997 in the City of Rensselaer and has a 17 year tradition of offering services to provide hope, hospitality and empowerment to individuals in the Rensselaer Community, especially women and women with children.
